PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court on 08/21/2023, and 02/01/2024.

Please Note: An incorporation petition was filed with the Court on February 1, 2024. The purpose of this petition is to reflect updated information, guideline provisions, and to be the revised version.

On August 14, 2023, a United States probation officer reviewed the conditions of supervision with Mr. Johnson. Mr. Johnson signed acknowledging his understanding of his conditions of supervision.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

6	Mandatory Condition #1: You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: On January 23, 2024, Dylan Johnson allegedly violated mandatory condition number 1 by allegedly committing the federal felony offenses of robbery in Indian Country, assault with intent to commit any felony in Indian Country, and assault with a dangerous weapon in Indian Country.

According to the information available to this officer, on January 23, 2024, officers with the Colville Tribal Police Department (CTPD) made contact with the victim's mother who called to report her daughter (the victim) was assaulted at approximately 7 p.m., by Dylan Johnson and two individuals, and she had a head injury. According to the statement, Dylan Johnson and two others arrived at the victim's residence. They then "jumped her." The report indicates Dylan Johnson hit the victim on the head with a purple speaker and shot the victim with a BB gun in the abdomen several times and said, "if I go back to prison I will kill you." In addition, the report indicates the offender took a speaker from the residence.
